Soundings sessions

(19.00, via Zoom – for access details, see opposite)

- 5 May: Living with an imperialist: In the enclave of seven small states in the north-east corner of India lies Nagaland, a Christian state. The diary and photographs of a Victorian Englishwoman who walked amongst the villages of the Naga Hills of 1900 provides an insight into a culture largely unchanged for centuries, elements of which are still to be found today. In these online illustrated Soundings Nigel Shakespeare will take you into the diary and the Nagaland of today.
- 19 May: An Evening with W.H. Auden. Auden was one of the greatest English-speaking poets of the 20th century. Join Mike Stevens in ambling through a few of his poems and looking at his life and legacy. Should you have a favorite Auden poem, bring it along to the Zoom session if you would like to share it with the other attendees.

The Bible Study is on Wednesday mornings at 10.15am after Morning Prayer. Contact Dr Gabriel Byng if you are interested in joining.

Christ Church Shop is closed.

We are urgently looking for younger volunteers to come forward to bridge the gap until the long- serving volunteers can return to the shop.

Share Your Family Prayers with KidsChurch

We need your help to assemble an end-of-year gift for the Kids Church children, a small token that we hope will help make up for these missed Sunday mornings together. We would like to put together a book of children's prayers collected from the Christ Church Vienna community that the children can pray with their families while we remain apart. All languages welcome--songs welcome too! Our hope is to bring together and share a small piece of how Christ Church members practice our faith outside the church. Kids Church leaders will format the submissions into a booklet, combined with coloring pages and activities that we would have completed this Spring. Please email your submissions with "Kids Church" in the title to caroline.shaver@gmail.com by Monday, 4 May.

The electoral roll is being revised for the ACM, which has been postponed again. The new date is 2 September at 7pm. Being on the electoral roll enables you to attend the ACM, and nominate a candidate for election to be a churchwarden, church council member or archdeaconry synod representative, or to stand for election to one of those positions. Nomination forms will be circulated nearer the time.

The May/June edition of Crossways is to be uploaded to our website on 1 May.
