Kids' Church is now closed resuming in the New Year. Date to be announced. Rehearsals for the Nativity Play on 19 December at 10.30 have started.

This week's LivingLight Blog, #45 Which Christkindl Markt? offers reflections on how, with an ecological mindset, we might want to approach enjoying Viennese tradition and treats throughout the six weeks or so before Christmas – specifically, the blog takes us on a tour de force across many of Vienna's Christmas markets: Enjoy! <https://ccv-site.org/web/index.php/connect/living-light-eco-blog>.

Hopefully, weather will be kind and allow us to resume coffee after church as of 21 November – dress warmly!

CCV bible study continues on Thursdays at 19.00 via Zoom, coordinated by Charles Bishop, who can be contacted after church services, or via email on: intern@christchurchvienna.org

The Church Shop is open for trade

Tuesdays to Fridays from 09:30 to 13:00. If you have items to drop off that can be sold, write an email to bazaar@christchurchvienna.org.

We always need volunteers to help with the following aspects of our church life:

1. CreationKeepers are looking for people from CCV to join them. Contact Monika Weber-Fahr at: eco@christchurchvienna.org
2. Bazaar and shop volunteers are still needed. Contact Diana Dopheide, as above.

Reading the Bible The Bible is the most popular book in the world and the most important book for Christians. Yet, having been composed thousands of years ago in different ancient cultures and languages, it can feel very strange and distant. Join us Saturday mornings once a month, in the Church Centre or online, for a new educational series to discuss the tools needed for reading the Bible well -- informed by both the academy and the Anglican tradition. The series will be organized by the Revd Dr Robert Kinney. We'll start on November 27 from 10-11am.
