CHRIST CHURCH

THE ANGLICAN/EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN VIENNA

The Revd Canon Patrick Curran, Chaplain
The Revd Dr Robert Kinney, Hon. Assistant Curate
office@christchurchvienna.org 01/7148900

Let us not seek out of thee
what we can only find in thee, O Lord!
Peace and rest and joy and bliss,
which abide only in thine abiding joy.
Lift up our souls above the weary round of harassing thoughts to thy eternal presence.
Lift up our minds to the pure, bright, serene
atmosphere of thy presence,
that we may breathe freely, there repose in thy love,
there be at rest from ourselves and from all things that weary us:
and thence return, arrayed in thy peace, to do and to bear whatsoever shall best please thee.
Grace to us and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

LivingLight: For this week's LivingLight Blog #85 – as part of the LivingLight in Summertime series – Elaine recalls a moment when a rainbow delighted her day. Check out her Haiku Poem about a Rainbow on <https://ccvsite.org/web/index.php/connect/living-light-eco-blog>. Haikus are a short form of poetry, originally from Japan, beautiful and easy to compose, but now that it's September, we will close the Haiku series next week and then return to our regular blog. Please send any ideas or thoughts you have to eco@christchurchvienna.org

Holy Communion from the Common Cup

The common cup has been restored symbolizing our unity in Christ. Note this is the common cup. Intinction (dipping the bread into the wine) is NOT permitted for hygienic reasons and as directed by our bishops. If you feel uncertain about drinking from the chalice, continuing to receive the bread only is acceptable. Remain kneeling until the wine has passed. Should you have an active respiratory infection of any sort, we ask that you exercise caution and refrain from the cup.
